I needed some advice quick because I came upon meeting an amazing woman. Was looking for advice on YouTube and came across to this author's videos which I found very informative and makes total sense. The book gives more details so I highly recommend it. Wow, where do I start? It seems like I lived through 3 lifetimes and still no success with women. I guess now is as good a time to try to change given it's the new year. I have read countless of these books before and I think this one makes the most sense. It's amazing how much BS is on this topic and there is actually a book out there that teaches you to become friends with a girl first and then tell her that you like her.

Ridiculous. DO NOT DO THIS. I HAVE DONE THIS MANY, MANY, MANY TIMES AND FAILED MANY, MANY, MANY TIMES. I haven't really tested this book's techniques since I just finished the book but I'm pretty sure they will work. Why? Basically, everything this book is telling me NOT to do, I've been doing them my entire life:-Being insecure, always thinking about other guys and how I compare to them-Being jealous even though she is not even my girlfriend yet-Being really down on myself and falling in a deep depression for many months after a failed attempt-Showing feminine traits and weakness-Not being strong and decisive, letting the girl take control-Buying her expensive dinners and gifts on the 1st date, 2nd date, 3rd date, etc, etc...

Women study men since birth. Magazines, tv shows, books, you name it. Women have the psychological advantage on men and they know how to play with a man's emotions like a puppet string. It's only right, for men to start thinking with our brain and not with our salamis. The truth is, most men are victims of social conditioning. Current day movies, tv shows, books and songs subliminally program men to be feminine, needy, stalkers instead of secure, confident men with a purpose in life, who is okay with rejection. Most men have no clue to what a woman's words and actions are really conveying. Men think in terms of logic. Women think in terms of emotions. When a woman says "I loves you", she only means "I love you" in that particular moment when she told you that. Tomorrow, that same woman may suddenly hate your guts. This is where most men get lost and start racking their brain for "logical" solutions on how to "fix" the problem. The average man will use "logic" as an attempt to resolve the woman's sudden anger. She ignores your texts and phone calls. The average man's "logical" process will push him into panic mode, causing him to 'over pursue' her, because he needs a "logical reason" as to why she is suddenly ignoring him. Sending her flowers, non stop text messages, phone calls, surprise visits and so on. This usually results in that woman eventually losing respect and eventually fall out of love with that man over the course of time. Corey's book provides the fundamentals needed to prevent men from making that mistake of using logic and reason to resolve a woman's dilemma.
