Customer Reviews

Excellent starter book for budding violinists. Was the only book my instructor will use to start students, he still plays professionally and was on Hee Haw with Roy Clark for years (if you are too young to remember Hee Haw....I don't even wanna know! :0). Very easy to understand, songs are very simple and relatively easy to start on.....we are talking about playing violin here, so.... Do recommend this book.

While the books are plain and exercises are not always exciting, the book is VERY sequential in building on concepts, and this series has 5 books! Once some basic techniques are learned, to bring in ensemble music will be beneficial and motivational to students. KJOS Muller-Rusch String Method 1 Violin Book

We had to purchase this for our daughters violin classes and it is a very good beginners book. Definitely a good series. You will want to find the Suzuki Violin Method and the book about Mr. Suzuki.
