Customer Reviews

This book is a must have for intermediate to advanced players. It really helps build correct technique and develop solid left hand playing. 10 minutes of practice per day is all you need with this book.

I loved the Czerny book from this publisher. This is quite difficult for me because I'm just starting as a cellist, but still it will be good to have daily exercises to challenge myself each day.

Being a cellist, I could use anything to advance in playing. This has helped me a bunch.
