I really love the viola! This All for Strings book taught me very well! I highly recommend this string method! This book teaches you all of the following: grand staff, Alto clef, Sharps, naturals, key signatures, pick up notes, repeat signs, first and second endings, tie, fermata, ritardando, capo al fine, da capo al codado, al segno, al fine, solo, ensemble, divisi, arco, pizzicato, down bow, up bow, bow bow, lift, slur, bow division, slurred, staccato, bowing, glissando, dynamics, rhythm. Isn't that a lot? This is a FANTASTIC BOOK!

I was taught from the All for Strings books when I started playing the viola in 1989. When I give lessons, I like to use these books, too. I've used other books only to come back to these ones. The material is introduced in an easy to learn format without seeming dumbed down. There are lots of duets/rounds in the books so that the student learns how to play with other musicians.

He isn't the poet, right? Book is good, but my son hasn't dealved into it as much as I would have liked...May not be anything wrong with it, but not his cup of tea.
