Customer Reviews

Flimsy and low quality. Pages are/or are similar to recycled paper but extra thin that ink bleeds through and even writing with a pencil be careful to write very lightly because the point will tear through the pages. Forget erasing though, the pages will tear through for sure. I bought something else afterwards and unfortunately what I paid for it when in the trash with it because it was useless.

Simple and affordable address book. I actually don't like tabs because I tend to have more friends with A or j names so having an alphabetical list doesn't seem to do me any good because the A's and J's fill up quickly and then I have no room for extra names. I like this address book because it's more customizable. Thank you.

Great for my elderly mother who can see it plain and clear. Very large.

It's great if you need big letters or spaces to see well. It is my fault that I didn't notice the size---really big! It is a nice address book, for sure, but I needed a smaller one.
