Jim Brickman's "The Disney Songbook " for the piano is awesome. The songbook doesn't look overwhelming to play. The song book consists of "Beauty & the Beast", "Mary Poppins Medley", "Cruella De Vil", "Beautiful", "Reflection", "When I see an Elephant Fly", "Zip-a-Dee-Doo-Dah," "Baby Mine", "Can you feel the Love Tonight", "A Dream is a Wish Your Heart Makes:", "Some Day My Prince Will Come", "I'm Amazed", "When you Wish Upon A Star" plus bonus songs of "Bare Necessities" and "Colors of the Wind". Jim has done a great job so that piano players will be able to handle the songs. These songs bring back so many memories to everyone, it is a must to have if you play the piano.

Jim Brickman is an awesome pianist and he always has really great songbooks. I've been looking for a Disney songbook but all of them have been really easy, and this one is advanced. I recommend trying out all of his music because all of it is contemporary but has a classical egdy feel to it.

Love it, great music. more advanced than the average high school piano player, but if you love it enough it'll make you practice more. I got this a while ago and now i'm in my second year in college and still play it :-)

This is the first music book I've bought from , and I guess I have to calibrate myself to the reviews. I don't consider myself to be much of a musician, so I thought that, based on the reviews, this book would be more challenging than it is. The arrangements are perhaps a bit more creative than the regular sheet music that you buy, but they are not really any fancier or more difficult, just different. For example, the left hand rarely plays more than one note at a time.

Love his music and love this book! Grew up listening to this CD so it is awesome that know I am able to play most of it. I wouldnt say it is the most difficult but does require good touch and timing while playing to make it sound really good

I have this on my iPod & really like the music. I first got it in the easy version but decided to get the regular version...it's a little harder so I'll have to work on it. I play professionally at a restaurant & play these songs whenever I have children eating with their parents.

Usually, you don't come across sheet music that's accurate, but with Jim Brickman's "The Disney Songbook," you don't have to worry about that. I am very satisfied with this product and it makes a great gift for any piano player that likes disney and Jim Brickman's stylings. Jim Brickman approved the arrangements himself! It really IS the matching sheet music to the "Disney Songbook." You won't be let down!!! :)

I think this is a great piano book. The song selection is great - it includes both up tempo songs as well as ballads. The arrangements are different from the original songs, which makes it both more fun and more challenging. These arrangements have a very jazzy feel. It's an intermediate level book, which is great for someone who hasn't played in a while or is looking to brush up on their skills. I would highly reccommend this book for any disney music fan.
